

Meketa Investment Group Moves to New Westwood, MA Location

BOSTON, November 20, 2020 - Meketa Investment Group (Meketa) today announced the firm has moved to a new office at 80 University Avenue, Westwood, Massachusetts. The long-planned relocation was completed earlier this month. Meketa, a global investment consulting and advisory firm, had been at another Westwood location since 2006.

The internal buildout commenced in late May, following a state-mandated halt to construction activity in Massachusetts due to COVID-19. Meketa was able to ensure the use of all union labor for the buildout, with more than 200 union workers in multiple trades putting in approximately 23,000 hours on the project.

“Having outgrown our previous space some time ago, we are pleased to complete the move to the new Westwood location, which allows plenty of room for us to grow into for many years to come,” said Kellie Kane, Managing Principal and Chief Operating Officer, Meketa. “The new office better reflects Meketa’s innovative, modern and collaborative culture, while offering our employees convenient access to public transportation and other amenities. It was particularly gratifying to use an all-union workforce for the buildout. We are deeply appreciative of the value of human capital in this project – the skill, quality of work, and dedication towards completing the work in the midst of a global pandemic.”
