

Meketa Investment Group to Host Hybrid Public and Private Markets Mission-Driven Investing Manager Research Day in December

BOSTON, October 4, 2023 – Meketa Investment Group (Meketa), a global investment consulting and fiduciary management (OCIO) firm, today announced that its inaugural Public and Private Markets Mission-Driven Investing Manager Research Day will take place on Wednesday, December 6, 2023. Meketa aims to provide the highest level of customized service to its clients and aims to thoroughly research the full universe of high-quality investment managers, including those who focus on generating both a social or environmental impact and a financial return through their investing activities. This will be Meketa's first dedicated mission-driven investing research event and will utilize a hybrid format.

Meketa plans to take a broad approach to considering whether specific strategies are mission-driven. Meketa's public and private markets manager research teams will collaborate with Meketa's Endowment & Foundation Committee members to determine which investment strategies are most appropriate for evaluation. There is no limit on AUM size or tenure in business for interested firms.

Each participating manager meets virtually or in person with a Meketa research associate, analyst, or consultant to introduce their firm and investment strategies. All managers who pursue mission-driven strategies with whom Meketa's research team has not met in the past two years, are eligible to participate.

To register for Meketa's Public and Private Markets Mission-Driven Investing Manager Research Day, please visit: <https://app.diligencevault.com/#/login?redirectId=38A9DBAF-1F92-4E6D-8DAF-ACEFB292CB6F> Participants will receive additional information upon registration. Please note there is no cost to attend. Registration is limited and the registration window closes on November 3rd.
